

2011 New Zealand Golf Order of Merit (OOM)

The following is to explain how the 2011 OOM will operate. Following a review of the 2010 formula, there have been a number of changes introduced, with the objective to make it a fairer system for all. Please note that the rankings are an indication only is only one of a number of factors that is considered in regard to national selection.

Points are awarded for identified events. These can be found at <http://www.golf.co.nz/Events/OOMTournaments.aspx>

- ❖ Points awarded are totaled during the year, and divided by the number of events played. The minimum divisor in a calendar year will be 12 for the men and 8 for the women.
- ❖ Point values vary depending on the Category awarded to the event which is based on importance and field strength. There are 4 categories for local events. A 5th category is for major international events
- ❖ The points breakdown changes in 2011, reflecting an allocation similar to the purse breakdown in a PGA Tour event. Where players tie, the points will be shared. (no count back as in 2010)
- ❖ Category 1, points awarded to top 50 men and top 30 women
- ❖ Category 2, points awarded to the top 40 and top 25 women
- ❖ Category 3, points awarded to the top 30 men and top 20 women
- ❖ Category 4, points awarded to the top 20 men and top 15 women
- ❖ The important match play Championships will also earn points as per the table below.
