

National Selector

New Zealand Golf is the governing body for golf in New Zealand responsible for fostering and developing the game.

We are now seeking expressions of interest to fill a National Selector Position in the South Island.

To successfully fulfil the role, the following skills and attributes are required:

- A passion for golf
- Some understanding of athlete development
- Excellent communication and analysis skills
- A strong desire to contribute to the game
- May have had previous selection experience within District level golf
- Reside in the South Island of New Zealand.

Within this role you may, dependant on the international representative schedule, be required to travel domestically to 3-5 golf events per year.

This is a voluntary role but includes travel, accommodation and a daily meal allowance.

A position overview can be viewed at www.golf.co.nz.

Applications can be sent via email to Liz.pearson@nzgolf.org.nz or by post to;
