

The 2018 Asia Pacific Senior Amateur Championship will this year be played at the Tom Watson Golf Club, Miyazaki, Japan, from 17-19 October. A teams event is played in conjunction with the individual competition in which New Zealand has a proud record.

Brent Paterson won the title last year at Royal Adelaide and returns to defend. Paterson joined Rodney Barltrop and Murray Martin as New Zealand winners of this prestigious senior title.

The 2018 New Zealand Seniors champion Stu Duff, and Peter Brinsdon, one of four amateurs to earn a start in this year's New Zealand Open, make their first appearance at this championship.

The six selected are:

Michael Barltrop (Royal Auckland)

John Batley (Titirangi)

Peter Brinsdon (Pegasus)

Stu Duff (Hastings)

Stu Nicholls (Waitemata)

Brent Paterson (Royal Auckland)
