

2020 WOMEN'S NATIONAL 18-HOLE HOME LINKS
TERMS OF THE COMPETITION

The competition is supported by Srixon and to be eligible to win Srixon prizes players must tee off on the first hole with a Srixon golf ball

1. Conditions Applying to all Women's 18-Hole Home Links Events

Home Links events are played at home club courses with district and national winners being determined from individual club results i.e. there is no play-off at club/district level.

- (a) Subject to the specific eligibility criteria for any individual event (see below) the Home Links events are open to all Full Playing Members ('Full Playing Member' means a full, active 18-Hole member of a Club) holding an 18-hole Handicap Index not exceeding 54.0.
- (b) All events, except the Nancy MacCormick Memorial Foursomes, are played concurrently.
- (c) The events are played annually on the home course of each Club and for 2020 are to be played during the months of April, May, June.
- (d) The dates of play for both weekday and weekend members are fixed by the Club committee.
- (e) The current Handicap Index on the day of play is to be used.
- (f) There shall be no entry fee charged for any Home Links event.
- (g) A player who is a Full Playing Member of more than one Club may only play in the competition once and must elect which Club she will play in the competition at.
- (h) Each Club will determine the winner (and ties) for each event, complete the Club Home Links Results Sheet provided by New Zealand Golf and post or e-mail the results form, together with the original scorecards or copies of original scorecards, of the winners (and ties) to reach the District Association Secretary no later than the date specified on the results sheet.
- (i) All scorecards submitted for results purposes must:
  - (i) be original scorecards or copies of original scorecards
  - (ii) show the event for which they are submitted
  - (iii) show the women's Course Rating and Slope Number for the course played
  - (iv) show the player's Handicap Index, Course Handicap and date played
  - (v) be signed and countersigned by the player and marker
  - (vi) be certified as correct by the club secretary.
- (j) The District winners (and ties) for each event will be determined by the District Association administrator, who will complete the District Home Links Results Sheet provided by New Zealand Golf and post or e-mail the results sheet, together with the original scorecards or copies of the original scorecards, of the winners (and ties) to reach the New Zealand Golf office no later than the date specified on the results sheet.
- (k) If a tie occurs at national level, a further round will be played by the players involved in the tie, the date to be the first scheduled LGU Medal competition, or within one month, after the Club receives notification that a play-off is necessary. Once established, this date cannot be altered. A player's Handicap Index current on the day of the play-off will apply. In the event of a further tie, the trophy will be awarded jointly.
- (l) It is at the Club's discretion whether or not to permit the use of motorised carts.

- (m) It is recommended Clubs adopt the Alternative to Stroke and Distance Local Rule – Model Local Rule E-5.

2. Nancy MacCormick Memorial Foursomes

Nancy MacCormick was appointed Secretary of the NZLGU in 1932 and remained in that office until her death in 1952. In 1953 silver salvers were purchased to commemorate her long years of service and so began the Home Links Foursomes competition.

Event-Specific Conditions:

- (a) The competition is Foursomes handicap stroke play, played over 18 holes.
